After the Chinese American Parent Association of Montgomery County (CAPA-MC) was announced to be a President's Volunteer Service Award (PVSA) certified organization, we received several inquiries, which are answered as following:

1. What is CAPA-MC's 12 months service time period?

The CAPA-MC's 12 months service time period is annually April 1st to March 31st. All the service hours which are used to apply for the award must be completed in the aforementioned time period and all documents/forms must be submitted to the CAPA-MC volunteer coordinator at pvsa@capamc.org no later than May 15th.

2. What kind of volunteer hour is eligible to count toward a PVSA award if you apply the award through CAPC-MC?

The volunteer hour used to count toward the award MUST be MCPS approved SSL hour. But it is important to note that NOT all MCPS-approved SSL hours are eligible. The following volunteer hours are not eligible:

- Volunteer activity not conducted in the US
- Learning hour
- Political lobbying (Non-partisan voter registration is an eligible activity)
- Religious instruction

To ensure the integrity of the PSVA award, CAPA-MC has the discretion to decide if the SSL hours submitted by applicant is eligible to count toward PVSA award.

You also MUST have volunteer hour affiliated with CAPA-MC to apply the PVSA award through CAPA-MC.

Starting from April 1st, 2024, to March 31st, 2025, 12 months service time period, in order for CAPC-MC to process your PVSA application, at least 20% of your total volunteer service hours or at least 20 volunteer service hours should be earned from participating CAPA-MC different clubs sponsored volunteer service hours.

3. Is there a fee needed to apply for the award?

No application fee is needed to apply for the award and CAPA-MC doesn't charge any fee for nominating volunteers.

4. What will happen, if the age group changes in the 12- month time period?

If within the time period your age group changes (Kids, Teens, Young Adults and Adults), your hours requirement will be divided into two parts, the months before and after your birthday. Your service hours will need to meet the required hours in each age group by month to be eligible for the award.

5. Are there other requirements to apply for the PVSA through CAPA-MC?

One of your family members must be a CAPA-MC general or voting member. If not, please register your family member at <https://www.capamc.org/> or scan the below bar code to join. Our general membership is free and we want to build a strong Chinese American community so together we can make a difference.
